OutWord For Family Discussion

Someone at school tells you that dinosaurs went extinct long before man and never lived with them. What would you say?

We sure hear that lie about dinosaurs everywhere, don't we? At school, museums, and on TV shows—we just can't get away from it. But just because we hear it a lot doesn't mean it's true. Did you know that there are dinosaur and dragon legends all around the world that give accounts of men and dinosaurs living together? And there have been cave drawings of dinosaurs found—drawn by men! But, most importantly, God's Word tells us when He created all the animals and humans—it was in the very same week only about 6,000 years ago.

Matt believes the story he heard about a dinosaur evolving over millions of years. But how will he learn the truth about dinosaurs? Find out in “Matt’s Dino Mix-Up.”
